Notices: If you have any items for next week's notice sheet please send them to Jo Criddle, by 7pm on Thursday
email: jo.criddle61@gmail.com or phone 01827 280471

Reflections for the week: There's another sheet available with daily reflections / questions to explore our Sunday morning theme of "Hallowed be your name". Please take one and seek to hear God speaking to you as you work through it. Why not discuss it with others you meet up with? And please let Graham know if you are finding these helpful or if they could be made better.

A chance to help out: As Graham mentioned on the 7th January, there are opportunities for more people to get involved in the teams that support our Sunday services. If you would like to get involved or find out more, please speak to those responsible for the team rotas: refreshments - Peter Birrell; laptop operation - Charles Clark; sound desk - Martin Horner; Flowers - Esther Ford.

Questions to help you think about today's teaching - to discuss in housegroups, or use at home:

Judgment and revelation (1 Samuel 3:1-4:1)

1. Think about the story from Eli's and then from Samuel's perspectives. What are the things that really speak to you or challenge you?
2. What does this story tell us about God?
3. How do you respond when you hear God speaking into your life – directly, through the Bible, through someone else?

Relating to God the Father (Ephesians 1:3-14)

4. Work through the passage and identify all the things that God the Father has done for us. How do you respond to them?
5. How, in response to that, does Paul suggest we should be living our lives? What can get in the way of doing this?
6. How do you best relate to God as Father?

Many thanks to all who contributed to the Christmas Appeal for BMS World Mission Disaster Recovery. We have been able to send them £679.56.

Many thanks for the cards, phone calls, visits in hospital and at home during this difficult time. I appreciate all who have helped in anyway. Love from Sheila.
